Mark 6: 41-42

Hi Everyone, my name is Theo Hoelker. I am 17, and I've been a member of St. Mark Parish my whole life. I'm currently working on my Eagle Scout Project for the thrift store Treasures for Life, which mainly helps single mothers. I'm looking for a lockable cabinet about 67" x 31" x 12" to hold the store's cleaning supplies, and if anyone has one that you are willing to donate, I would be truly grateful. If you think you can help, please reach out to me at (216) 533-6662, and hopefully we can figure something out. I'm happy to pick it up myself. Thank you, and have a blessed day!

PRINCIPAL NEWS

It has been a great start to our new school year. This week, we welcomed sixteen PreK students into St. Mark as members of the Class of 2032! That seems really hard to believe! Their smiles were so infectious as they entered their classroom for the very first time, but parents and grandparent entered a little teary-eyed. Waiting for them was their teacher, Mrs. Amy Melvin-Marko and her aide, Mrs. Lynda Boriska. I cannot wait to share with you all the fun activities that will go on in their classroom this year.

I am sure many of you have items hanging on your refrigerator- although I am one who tries not to! Just this past week, I saw this quote hanging on the side of my sister's refrigerator, and I thought how powerfully true this is, so I wanted to share it with all of you.

"Smile often. Pray. Tell those that you love that you do. Rediscover old friends. Make new ones. Hope. Grow. Give. Give in. Buy some flowers. Share them. Keep a promise. Laugh often. Reach out. Hug a child. Slow down. See a sunrise. Listen to rain. Trust life. Have faith. Enjoy. Make some mistakes. Learn from them. Explore the unknown. Celebrate your own life. Give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others."

Many of these actions are quite attainable if we put our minds to it. For example, prayer is something we can do at any time in our day. I consider myself to be so lucky to be so close to church, although I do not need a church to pray. I often times drop into church before leaving for the day just to pray for a solution to a problem or just in thanksgiving for a great day. Taking time for personal prayer is transformational. Being a part of Mass, the greatest form of prayer, I find to be even more transformational for me.

I love the last part of the quote. Can you imagine how different this world would be if we spent more time improving ourselves and less time criticizing others? I found myself really thinking about that. How easy it is to find fault with others. Yet, we all make mistakes. And that is ok- as long as we learn from them.

Finally, I encourage you to celebrate your own life. All of us have special gifts and talents that should be shared with others; celebrate those gifts. As the school year unfolds, many of the gifts and talents of our students will emerge. This is just another additional "perk" of working in a school- watching children discover their special gifts and talents- and not just discovering these gifts, but exploring ways to put them to use for the benefit of others. I see our teachers sharing their gifts in their classrooms every day. One goal I have set for myself this year is to let them know how valuable every one of them is to the success of our school. Each one of them brings a special gift to St. Mark. I consider myself to be quite blessed to be part of such a caring group of professionals.

Have a great week!
Mrs. Cocita
