Commission Updates  Education School –Karen Cocita
	<ul> <li>January 6 - second Eucharistic Adoration and invited families to join. Our next Adoration will be May 5. Next year we are considering doing monthly Adoration.</li> <li>Registration is now open for the school year. Parishioners and current families get first registration options. Pre-K is full and on a wait list.</li> <li>Catholic Schools week was successful. The open house was well received and attended. We gave out 200 cups, 100 big cones, and 100 little cones of ice cream at the open house.</li> <li>Catholic Schools Week included a talent show and a game of Kahoot.</li> <li>Created baskets for first responders.</li> <li>Mother &amp; Son Dance is coming up and 175 boys are attending with their mothers.</li> <li>The science fair is coming up. Grades one through four are optional participation. Grades six and eight have mandatory participation.</li> <li>Father Adam, Mrs. Cocita, and Teresa attended the Keeping the Faith meeting to discuss the direction of Catholic education in the diocese. The bishop wants each parish to have a school attached to it regionally or geographically. "These are our kids."</li> <li>We have the sixth largest catholic school system in the country and the 26th largest diocese.</li> </ul>

Two Rooted in Faith grants have been applied for - one will finish the new stair treads and the other will provide a new active panel for the music room.
