AX TIBI MARCE

St. Mark Catholic Church

St. Mark is a Catholic parish committed to fostering discipleship through the Word of God and the Sacraments. We are dedicated to providing Catholic education to our youth, to bringing a deeper relationship with Christ to our adults, and to supporting those in need through the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy. We encourage all parishioners to participate in the shared responsibility of worship, prayer, study and service.

PRINCIPAL NEWS

We have continued to host some really great events here at school. Cleveland is such a culturally rich city, so it is fitting that we try to provide opportunities for our children to experience some of that culture first-hand.

The Cleveland Orchestra, under the musical direction of Franz Welser-Most performed The Sounds of Water for the students in Gr. 3 &4 last month. Did you know that more than 70% of the earth's surface is covered by water? It's no wonder then that oceans, seas, and rivers have inspired composers past and present. All of the pieces in this year's concert were connected to bodies of water throughout the world! As our students learned about the critical role water plays as part of their classroom curricula, they also gained an additional perspective of the role water plays in music and the arts. Oceans, seas, and rivers have inspired composers past and present throughout the world, and our children were provided with the opportunity to sit in Severance Hall and enjoy these sounds. The children loved the experience and so many of them told me how beautiful the building was inside. One of the girls told me she wished her house was that large and beautiful- and then the rest of the girls agreed!

Our school Prayer Partners have been working together on a service project for our Veterans. They saved cardboard rolls and filled them with candy, wrapped and tied the ends, and attached a small personal note. These will all be delivered to Veterans in nursing facilities and other places in the area by our Special Friend, Gary Schuld. The children had a great time working on this project while visiting with their Prayer Partners.

Another service opportunity we were involved in was the Coats for Kids program. Howard Hanna Realtor, Christie Dennis, contacted me and asked us to consider partnering with Howard Hanna in supporting this initiative. Howard Hanna has been a part of this program for 25 years. Our 7th Grade teacher, Ms. DeGennaro, jumped right in with her class to support this initiative. The 7th Grade was responsible for collecting the donated coats and packaging them for drop-off. Twenty-six of them attended the 11:30 Mass together last weekend and gathered any weekend coat donations and assisted with clean-up following Donut Sunday. These students worked so well together. It was a pleasure working with them! And the best part was that they were having fun doing service. Thank you, 7th Grade!

Finally, have you heard about the Cleveland Reads Citywide Reading Challenge? The belief that a city that reads together grows together is the purpose behind this initiative, which is sponsored by the office of Mayor Bibb, Cleveland Public Library, Cleveland Teachers Union, CMSD and nearly 30 other community organizations. The goal is for the entire city to collectively read one million books and/or one million minutes in 2023. They are encouraging all city residents to sign up online at clevelandreads.com and use the website throughout 2023 to log your books and the minutes you spend reading. Readers can win prizes and a lifetime of positive results. In addition, a Cleveland Reads Kickoff Celebration is scheduled for Saturday, December 17th from 12:00-3:00 PM at Public Auditorium, 500 Lakeside Ave. East in downtown Cleveland. Everyone is invited for free books, reading resources, entertainment, family activities and more! Help spread the word about the Cleveland Reads Citywide Reading Challenge and grab a good book!

Have a great week! Mrs. Cocita

Sunday:	3rd Sunday of Advent; St. Damasus I, Pope
Monday:	Our Lady of Guadalupe
Tuesday:	St. Lucy, Virgin and Martyr
Wednesday:	St. John of the Cross, Priest and Doctor of the Churc
Next Sunday:	4th Sunday of Advent

Saint of the Week

Saint Damasus served as bishop of Rome for 18 years as Pope Damasus I (366-384). He had to endure significant controversy early in his pontifical reign when a factional group of bishops insisted that their chosen claimant, Ursinus, was the true pope. Both sides resorted to violence before the issue was decided in favor of Damasus. He went on to make the unification of the Church a central focus of his papacy and fervently fought to counter any division caused by the many heretical teachings of his time. While he was pope, Christianity was declared the official religion of the Roman Empire and Rome's authority in the Church was decided by a synod that Damasus called in 382. This synod established Rome as the direct descendant of the Church founded by the apostle Saint Peter, the apostolic see, and put an end to confusion stemming from Constantinople, which some were already calling 'The New Rome'. To further unify the Church, Damasus introduced Latin as the principle liturgical language and commissioned his secretary. Saint Jerome, to compile and revise the various translations of the Bible into one official translation to be used by the entire Church: The Latin Vulgate. This successfully preserved the original Scriptures by making them more accessible to the average Christian. A writer and poet himself, Saint Damasus lives on in history through his many epigrams and verse inscriptions that can be found on the Roman catacombs that he restored during his papacy. Saint Jerome described his friend, Pope Damasus, as being "an incomparable person, learned in the Scriptures, a virgin doctor of the virgin Church, who loved chastity and heard its praises with pleasure."
